

WHO CAN BECOME A PSCQ MEMBER?

All Children's Services are encouraged to become a PSCQ 2009 Member including Long Day Care, Outside School Hours Care, In-home Care, Family Day Care services and Inclusion Support Agencies. Individuals are also able to become Members outside of their Children's Service.

WHY BECOME A PSCQ MEMBER?

PSCQ Members will receive excellent benefits, including free yearly access to Noah's Ark's General Resource Library, and access to Remote Area Advisory Service (RAAS) if you are in a remote location. Members will also have the opportunity to attend varying events for free including Peer Support Groups, Professional Luncheons, Online Forums, and Open Service Sessions.

A LITTLE BIT MORE ABOUT NOAH'S ARK

Noah's Ark Resource Library and Advice Service, contracted by Health and Community Services Workforce Council through PSCQ, aims to work collaboratively with all PSCQ Members by offering FREE access to general resources.

These resources include books, posters, CDs, fact sheets, children's fiction, DVDs, bilingual children's books and websites. They cover a huge range of topics such as human resources, business planning, health and safety, guiding behaviour, indigenous, food handling, emergent curriculum, cultural diversity, accreditation and policy development.

WHAT ARE THE DIFFERENT TYPES OF MEMBERSHIP?

There are many different types of Membership, each designed to suit different circumstances. Please read carefully through the following types of Membership to decide which best suits you.

TARGET GROUP MEMBERSHIP (previously "eligible" membership)

Australian Government approved Child Care Services (those that receive Child Care Benefit (CCB)) are considered to be PSCQ's Target Group. There are four sub-categories of membership under Target Group Membership. These are: Single Service; Organisation; Family Day Care Scheme; Individual.

Target Group Membership - Single Service

Recommended for Long Day Care and Outside School Hours Care Services that are either:

- not part of a larger organisation
- are part of an organisation with less than five service sites

Once the service has become a Target Group Member, all staff that work within that service will be eligible to take part in PSCQ's Membership Benefits until 31 December 2009.

Target Group Membership - Organisation (5+ services)

Recommended for Long Day Care and Outside School Hours Care Services that are part of an organisation with more than five sites. Upon becoming a PSCQ 2009 Member, each site wishing to register must be clearly outlined on the registration form. Once the sites have become a Target Group Member, all staff that work within those sites will be eligible to take part in PSCQ's Membership Benefits until 31 December 2009.

Target Group Membership - Family Day Care Scheme

Recommended for Family Day Care and In-Home Care Schemes. Once the scheme has become a Target Group Member, all carers that work within that scheme will be eligible to take part in PSCQ's Membership Benefits until 31 December 2009.

Target Group Membership - Individual

Recommended for Individuals who wish to become members, external of their place of enrolment. Once individuals have become a Target Group Member, they will be eligible to take part in PSCQ's Membership Benefits until 31 December 2009.

NON-TARGET GROUP MEMBERSHIP (previously “non-eligible” membership)

Services which are not Australian Government approved Child Care Services (those receive in the Child Care Benefit (CCB)) are considered to be PSCQ's Non-Target Group. There are three sub-categories of membership under Non-Target Group Membership. These are: Other Children's Services; Other Services; Individual.

Non-Target Group Membership - Other Children's Service

Recommended for Children's Services that do not receive Child Care Benefit, such as Kindergartens, Creches or Playgroups. Once the service is has become a Non-Target Group Member, all staff that work within that service will be eligible to take part in PSCQ's Membership Benefits until 31 December 2009.

Non-Target Group Membership - Other Services

Recommended for other services, such as a Registered Training Organisation. Once the service is has become a Non-Target Group Member, all staff that work within that service will be eligible to take part in PSCQ's Membership Benefits until 31 December 2009.

Non-Target Group Membership - Individual

Recommended for individuals who wish to become members, who do not work within a Children's Service that receives CCB, and who's service does not want to become a member. Once individuals have become a Non-Target Group Member, they will be eligible to take part in PSCQ's Membership Benefits until 31 December 2009.
