Participants will identify the greatest area of need in their service and learn how to build a more sustainable environment. They will build upon current recycling practices to include resources in the local environment and evaluate their own outdoor environments with a view to creating outdoor sustainability opportunities including gardening, compost, worm farms and keeping chickens. Learning is specific for the day with opportunities for educators to ask questions.

WITH SONYA MORTIMORE

Sonya Mortimor has over 20 years' experience in the early childhood sector. With a focus on long day care, Sonya has also been a TAFE teacher, Resource Officer – Communities and a QIAS Validator, among others. Sonya has a strong interest in environmental issues and currently works as an Education Consultant for the early childhood sector in relation to sustainability issues.

All evening workshops will have a light supper provided from 6.00pm. Midday workshop will have a morning tea on arrival at 9.30am.

All children's services educators welcome!
