

DIRECTORS & COORDINATORS MORNING TEA

THURSDAY 17 JUNE 2010
Bremer TAFE Library Theatre
C Block Level 3.
Mary Street, Bundamba
10.00am—12.00pm

Directors & Coordinators meetings are an opportunity for early childhood professionals to gather to discuss issues relevant to your field. From time to time other professionals from organisations that have links with our sector will also be invited to attend. Through the sharing of information with a range of professionals you will be able to keep abreast of important issues, network with colleagues and get the facts to support you in your roles as directors and coordinators.

Children's Services Awards —Changes

This session will outline changes to the Industrial Relations Landscape, focusing on the new modern Award affecting the Children's Services Industry and the National Employment Standards for those now covered by the Federal System resulting from State transfer of Industrial Relations powers. ACSEA presenter Susan Cislowski will also talk about exemptions from the transfer of power, e.g. Children's Services operated by P&C Associations and the implications.

Duty of Care What are your responsibilities

To gain an understanding of the meaning of "Duty of Care" within the context of the Child Care Act and Regulations, Workplace Health and Safety and Common Law and its impact on policy development implementation within the Child Care Industry.

Susan Cislowski joined ACSEA in October 2001 and currently assists members with their phone enquiries as well as delivering yearly seminars. During the last ten years Susan has also been a member of the State Executive of the Queensland Council of Parents and Citizens Association, Board member of the Queensland Schools Curriculum Council and the Board of Teacher Registration. This experience in the community sector gives Susan the ability to structure the advice offered based on her understanding of the structure and culture of volunteer committee's and in language that is relevant to their knowledge and experience.
