Viewing young children as active participants in their own learning creates new possibilities for educators to move beyond pre conceived expectations about how children learn. The new Early Years Learning Framework encompasses a view of children's lives as characterised by Belonging, Being and Becoming.

This series offers participants the opportunities to discover and explore new possibilities for integrating the EYLF into their practice.

WITH LOUISE STRODE-PENNY
& CAROLINE FEWSTER

Louise Strode-Penny has over 20 years' experience in early childhood education and care, both in New Zealand and Australia. She has taught child care at Logan TAFE and at the Open Learning Institute, and in 1998 became an NCAC Moderator (QIAS, FDCQA & OHSCA) and later a full time Staff Validator. Louise has worked for the Queensland government | Office of Early Childhood Education and Care (Department of Education and Training) and as a PSCQ contractor delivering sessions in QLD around Emergent Curriculum. She currently works at Bond University, lecturing in the Bachelor of Children's Services, and is contracted by the PSC in the Northern Territory to deliver sessions on the EYLF and Quality Assurance.

Caroline Fewster is an early childhood academic, trainer, author and presenter. Caroline works with children's services throughout Australia in all sectors as an Early Childhood Education Consultant. Caroline currently lectures at Bond University in the Bachelor of Children's Services. In 2006 she won the Carrick Award for University Teaching – Citation for Outstanding Contributions to Student Learning: for the Development of Innovative, Collaborative Approaches.
