

YOU CAN DO MUSIC AND TELL STORIES!

Using simple everyday resources, you will create inclusive rhythms and rhymes that will energise you and reinvigorate your love for teaching and creating music and tell stories with children. This interactive workshop will give you confidence to use simple and stimulating strategies to include music and stories in your everyday program for children aged 0 to 8.

WITH LOUISE DORRAT

Louise has managed a variety of early childhood services and conducted professional development nationally. Her background in drama, song and dance has resulted in the release of a music DVD called You Can Do Music. Louise currently teaches the Bachelor of Education and is the author of two Family Day Care business manuals.
